Bruce lapid. n. 386. In tabula omittuntur litterae inclinatae. Videtur fuisse dedicatio facta sub cura Maximi alicuius, fortasse a. p. C. 158 Tertullo et Sacerdote aut 219 Antonino (Elagabalo) Augusto II et Sacerdote II consulibus. Sed noli v. 4 ad imperatoris nomen referre, quod collegae nomini certo praecedebat.

837 Another at Weloford in a columbe or a great fower squared hewen stone, as commonlie all thes inscriptions are in fower squared stones of like quantitie and qualitie, wrought all alike to one forme with flowers and battle axes. This stone was all wryten on the one side, but all the letters but thes was fretted awaie, that none cold not knowe anie forme of anie letter, altho I toke great paine therewith, having both men to turne it wher I wold, and iron instruments made for the purpose, wherbie I might have discerned the letters, by folowing ther characters, but nothing wold serve. I had a great desire to knowe what it should be BAINBR. Willifordi CAMD. At Corby castle, in the possession of Mr. Howard GORD. Ibidem, where I hear it has been time immemorial HORSL.
