anno enim 199 iamdudum non in vivis erat Apolaustus, occisus, ut monuit Gattius, a Commodo. Videntur Tiburtini basim quam sub Commodo Apolausto publice dedicaverant, non ita multis annis post in alios usus vertisse, inscriptione frontis obiecta vel ad parietam versa, in latus autem, cuius inscriptio propter nomen Commodo damnatum eradi coepit erat, nova inscriptione intrusa. Vocabulorum Graecorum supra titulum primarium scriptorum Bormanno certo constabat de ΤΡΩΑΚΙΝ, item de ΟΠΕΩΤΗ (quod sequitur potest superfuisse ex N, ut fuerit Οπέστη); nihil legi potuit ex vocabulo primo; ex duabus mediis incerta tantum vestigia excepta sunt, ΤΥΝ...ΝΑΤ et ΧΙΙΙ///.

Descripsit Gatti praeter vocabula Graeca supra titulum frontis intra coronas perscripta; ea primus descripsit ut potuit Bormann, adiutus ab Hirschfeldio. Edita est Notizie degli scavi 1887 p. 30.

Huic pantomimo titulos publice a municipiis Italiae positos habemus praeterea Capuae (Corp. X, 3716) et Canusii (Corp. IX, 344, ubi composita habes a Mommseno quae de eo traduntur), a privato homine in urbe Corp. VI, 10447 (ipse posuit Fundis titulum Corp. X, 6219). — Vv. 12. 13 postea additi sunt. — In inscriptione lateris vv. 7—9 erasum est sine dubio nomen Commodo. Eiusdem lateris vv. 1—6 aliquot annis post incisa sunt quam vv. 7—9 et tota inscriptio frontis;
